Legacy Gala

A Night at the Museum

This past Friday, February 21, Tennessee Christian had our annual Legacy Gala. This year the event was held at The Museum at Five Points. Guests were welcomed by Mrs. Madrigal and Jonathan Adams, playing cello and piano, respectively. The beautiful music accompanied the showcase of four of our Lower School students, Lizzie Henry, Henry Sluder, Lincoln Osborne, and Kennerly Dodson, as they took on the persona of historical Americans. Along with key photography stops, the lobby was full of excitement.

I want to thank all the participants who were at the 2025 Legacy Gala. Thank you for your continued support and standing for Christian education in Bradley County.

I especially want to thank all the individuals who helped put on the wonderful event.

In Christ,
Jared D. Tilley

BRAD H. BENTON BUSINESS
LEADERSHIP AWARD

This year's recipient of the 6th annual Brad H. Benton Business Leadership Award is Bill Martin. Bill Martin has assisted Tennessee Christian by being a financial mentor and guide for the school.

FOURTH PERSON AWARD

This year's recipient of the 13th annual 4th Person Award is Angela Laws, who has dedicated herself to the school through a generous smile, a willing heart, and hands ready to serve.

SPIRIT OF SERVICE AWARD

This year's recipient of the 17th annual Spirit of Service Award is Joel Rogers. Joel has partnered with Tennessee Christian through the Salvation Army.

These individuals display what it means to build a legacy devoted to the cause of Christ. Thank you all for your service to the school and God's kingdom!
