

TUESDAY TALON

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Below is a prayer from Rev. Samuel F. Pugh. He was 103 when he passed to be with the Lord in 2007. During his life, he educated children in a daycare center until he was over a hundred years old. “Mr. Sam,” as he was called, wrote children’s books and spent time as the National Society of Children’s Book Writers president. This Thanksgiving prayer encourages us to be thankful for what God gives us and seek opportunities to be His hands and feet.

Oh, God, when I have food
help me to remember the hungry;
when I have work, help me
to remember the jobless;
when I have a warm home,
help me to remember the homeless;
when I am without pain,
help me to remember those who suffer;
and remembering, help me
to destroy my complacent
and bestir my compassion.
Make me concerned enough to help,
by word and deed,
those who cry out for what we take for granted.

-Samuel F. Pugh

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving!

In Christ,

MIDDLE SCHOOL MIXER, COUNTRY VS COUNTRY CLUB

Where can a socialite mingle with a cowboy on the dance floor? No where else than our very own Middle School Mixer where we mixed the best of the country and the country club. From the Electric Slide to the Macarena to the Church Clap, these students left it all on the dance floor (along with some glow sticks and loose feathers). This is a middle school memory they will never forget!

LOWER SCHOOL - ELECTION DAY

Last Tuesday was a big day
in Mrs. Dodson and Mrs.
Hope's Kindergarten Class.

It was Election Day.

The class was torn.
The debates were intense.
The air was sweet with
cookie crumbs
But strong with opinion.

The votes were cast and counted.
The decision was clear.
A few tears were shed.
The kindergarten class had spoken.

Sorry, Oreo.
Chips Ahoy won with all the chips.

UPPER SCHOOL HOMECOMING DANCE

After winning both Homecoming games Friday night, it was a fun filled Saturday evening cuttin' a rug at the always anticipated Homecoming Dance. Ninth through twelfth graders wore their grooviest duds to dance the night away. Cole Douglas was unofficially the "Absolute Best Dressed." The lights, the freshly spun cotton candy, the pool table and the student selected music had the night ending too soon. It was a memorable evening to end Homecoming 2022.

HOMECOMING GAME AND COURT

Friday, November 11, Tennessee Christian welcomed alumni, students, and the larger TCPS community to its 2022-2023 Homecoming. The Lady Hawks won their first game against Paideia, 66-11. Throughout the game, the Lady Hawks displayed excellent passing and outside shooting. The Lady Hawks also welcomed back to their team Sophomores Ashlyn Henry and Abigail Shepherd, both returning from prolonged medical absences. The Hawks followed the Lady Hawks with a fast-paced performance winning big against the Paideia Knights, 62-24.

During the half-time of the Hawks game, Tennessee Christian crowned a new homecoming king and queen. The 2022-2023 Homecoming Court winners are Olivia Divel & Hunter White!

Congratulations to our undefeated Lady Hawks. They beat Georgia-Cumberland Academy 38-30 last night. Thursday night, our basketball teams travel to Sale Creek. The Lady Hawks play at 4:30. The Hawks play two games, with the junior varsity at 6:00 and the varsity at 7:30.
